Interesting Club Session Held In Mrs. Cook's Home

Mrs. Eugene Cook was hostess to the members of Torrance Club, National Business and Professional Women, when they met Monday evening at her home 823 Madrid Avenue. Assisting her as co-hostess was Miss Verna Porter. Mrs. Benjamin W. Roberts, president, conducted the business meeting.

The program was brought by Stanley Briggs, YMCA chairman, Milton Isbell, YMCA director, and Lou Valencia, each of whom discussed in an interesting manner the varied activities of YMCA.

Endorsements for district officers were made as follows: Audrey Brown, Los Angeles district president, for director-at-large of California Federation, N.B.P.W.; Blanche Carlson, of San Pedro club for chairman of the Los Angeles section; Odessa Davis, for Los Angeles district president.

Other business discussed at the meeting pertained to further contributions of clean wool clothing, socks, shoes, and tins of food to be given to the Indians of northern New Mexico and Arizona. Donors are asked to leave their packages at Torrance Plumbing Shop or A-1 Photo Supply. From there they will be transported to Kroener Wedge Ranch, 10282 South Kennymead Drive, Orange. At that point, the U.S. Navy Reserve will pick them up and fly them to remote areas.

A gift of groceries sent by the club has just been acknowledged by the ranch owners, Mrs. Roberts announced.

At the conclusion of the business meeting dainty refreshments were served from a buffet table lovely with pink camellias in a crystal bowl and matching lighted tapers. The table was further enhanced with an ercu handmade lace cloth, Mrs. Willis M. Brooks poured.
